Teaching Mode

In a course on Diplomacy, Negotiation, and Mediation the teaching methods are:

- Lectures
- Interactive Discussions
- Case Studies and Analysis:
- Role-Plays and Simulations
- Guest Speakers
- Experiential Learning Activities
- Multimedia Resources
- Reflective Assignments
- Field Visits and Study

Teaching Resources

- Handouts and Course Materials
- Multimedia Presentations
- Online Databases and Research Materials
- Simulation Software and Tools
- Guest Speakers and Expert Panels
- Textbooks and Reference Materials

Assessment Methods

- Written Assignments
- Case Study Analysis
- Role-Plays and Simulations

Contact and Inquiries

Institute for Public Policy and International Affairs (IPPIA)
Department of International Relations
United States International University - Africa (USIU-Africa)
USIU Road, Off Thika Road (Exit 7)
P. O. Box 14634 - 00800
Nairobi
Kenya
+254 (0)730 116 641
wngare@usiu.ac.ke
sbiko@usiu.ac.ke

@USIUAfrica @ExperienceUSIU

Certificate Program in

Diplomacy, Mediation, & Negotiation

Level 1

www.usiu.ac.ke

United States International University-Africa
Education to take you places

Importance of the program

The Diplomacy, Negotiation and Mediation Certificate is a unique course that intends to equip practitioners with the necessary practical skills in this ever evolving and dynamic field.

The skills set offered has become essential in the diplomatic, developmental and private sector. Professionals are often requested to resolve conflicts either internally or externally, foster partnerships, mediate and facilitate dialogue in the course of their duties. This course will enable them to not only acquire the necessary skills, but become highly recognized experts and accredited mediators.

Objectives

The key objectives of the program on Diplomacy, Negotiation, and Mediation can vary depending on the specific curriculum and goals of the program. However, here are five key objectives that are commonly addressed in such programs:

1. Understand the practical techniques used in diplomacy, negotiation, and mediation
2. Enhance practical skills in negotiation and mediation
3. Explore different diplomatic approaches and strategies
4. Understand the role of culture and power dynamics in diplomacy
5. Analyze case studies and real-world scenarios
6. Build a professional network
7. Foster cross-cultural understanding and collaboration

Learning Outcomes

The expected learning outcomes of a course on Diplomacy, Negotiation, and Mediation include:

- Comprehensive understanding
- Knowledge of diplomatic strategies and approaches
- Practical negotiation and mediation skills
- Analytical and critical thinking
- Cross-cultural competence
- Conflict resolution and problem-solving
- Ethical and professional conduct
- Networking and collaboration

Target Audience

- Diplomats and Foreign Service officers
- Government officials
- Business professionals
- Non-governmental organization (NGO) representatives
- Legal professionals
- Students and researchers
- Civil society representatives
- Professionals in conflict-affected areas

Course Fee

250,000 KSH

Duration

42 hrs per module
October 9, 2023 - January 27, 2024

Course Content

The specific course content for a program on Diplomacy, Negotiation, and Mediation include

- Diplomacy
- Negotiation
- Mediation