

UNITED STATES INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

An Opportunity to Study Abroad

USIU-Africa/American Business School (ABS), France Exchange Program

Applications are being accepted from undergraduate students desiring to study abroad at American Business School (ABS), Paris, France for Autum Term-one Semester (Beginning September 2017 – December 2017) – Two (2) Students Will Be Selected.

Founded in 1985, The American Business School joined IGS University (Institut de Gestion Social), one of France's most dynamic private universities. The American Business School (ABS) is worldwide educational reference in France. Based on the American Academic system, the ABS embodies an international vision of education in business and commerce. ABS aims to train its students to become future business leaders who think internationally, take initiatives and can work on multicultural teams. It offers the American Academic System with the European touch. Visit www.absparis.org (English version) for more information.

Benefits:

- An Opportunity to Broaden Your Cultural Knowledge, Experience and Education.
- An Opportunity to Study Abroad at USIU-Africa prices.
- Swedish Language is not a requirement. Classes will be taught in English.

Eligibility:

Undergraduate students with 30 or more units are encouraged to apply. Students must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above and no history of disciplinary infractions (Student Code of Conduct). Students will be responsible for the following:
